

New Book Club: The Law and Literature Lounge

Are you a lawyer who loves reading? Or a reader who is fascinated by books about the law and the legal system? Mostly Books is starting a brand new specialist Book Club. It will be called the “Law and Literature Lounge” and will have a focus on fiction that depicts law and lawyers. We will look at new fiction and also some classics. The bookclub will be facilitated by Dr Rachel Spencer who has been a lawyer and legal academic for many years prior to being Assistant Manager of Mostly Books for the past year or so.

Rachel will guide the group through an analysis of each month’s book and then facilitate a group discussion. The first meeting will be at 7.15 pm on Thursday 4 April in the shop.

Here is the book list:

- 4 April: Chai Time at Cinnamon Gardens, by Shankari Chandran
- 2 May: The Interpreter, by Brooke Robinson
- 6 June: She Too, by Eve Thompson
- 11 July: In Cold Blood, by Truman Capote
- 1 August: Prima Facie, by Suzie Miller
- 5 September: Tenderness, by Alison McLeod
- 3 October: The Arsonist, by Chloe Hooper
- 7 November: Bleak House, by Charles Dickens

Tickets $35 per session, which includes a copy of the book, a presentation about the book, a guided discussion, and refreshments.

Special 2024 Law and Literature Lounge Season Ticket price $260 (for 8 evenings)

Bookings essential.

If you are interested in joining the group, and purchasing tickets, please email info@mostlybooks.com.au, with “Law and Literature Lounge – Attention Rachel” in the subject line.
